

Mental health and wellbeing at school

Survey of 1,533 Mumsnet users who have at least one child currently in school, between 01/10/18 - 15/10/18. The data is not weighted.

What are your greatest hopes for your child when they grow up? Please select up to 3.
	Total
That they are personally happy and fulfilled	90 %
That they have good health	68 %
That they have financial stability	47 %
That they have a happy family life of their own	39 %
That they make a difference to the community/world	12 %
That they have the chance to travel the world	6 %
That they get their dream job	5 %
That they can buy their own home	4 %
That they have their own successful business	1 %
Other (please specify)	2 %

Thinking about your child growing up and moving towards adulthood, which of these are your biggest worry when it comes to their future health and happiness? Please select up to 3.
	Total
Mental health and wellbeing	68 %
Finding good friends and partners	54 %
Economic instability	29 %
Getting a good education	27 %
Getting a good job	24 %
The environment	23 %
Being in debt/personal finances	23 %
Housing	17 %
Crime	12 %
Other (please specify)	5 %

What subjects or skills would you like your child to be taught more about in school? Please tick all that apply.

	Total
Mental health & Wellbeing	73 %
Personal finance	61 %
Healthy eating and cooking	56 %
Online safety	53 %
Languages	40 %
Coding	31 %
Politics	29 %
Job interview techniques	26 %
How to succeed in the workplace	22 %
Other (please specify)	9 %
None of the above	1 %